How your answers are marked

- ✓ The test is on paper, in class. Write your answers clearly on the test paper — your teacher marks it.
- ✓ Spelling counts. A misspelt word can lose the point — in grammar the form must be exactly right.
- ✓ Short and full forms are both correct: didn't = did not.
- ✓ Write only the missing word(s), not the whole sentence. "No more than three words" means three at most.
- ✓ Your teacher marks the writing: 4 criteria × 10 points.

To pass, you need 70 points out of 100.

Below 70? With 50–69 you get one retake. Below 50, the level is repeated.

The writing task

Informal email to a friend

≈ 90 words · 40 points

10 POINTS EACH

Content — every point of the task is answered.

Vocabulary — a range of words from these units, spelt correctly.

Organisation — paragraphs, linking words, a clear start and end.

Grammar — correct tenses and forms, including the grammar above.

Before the test

- 1 Revise the grammar and vocabulary of Units 7–12 — in your Navigate A2 coursebook and workbook.
- 2 Take the practice test “Final Practice” on the Sevenine platform. Same parts without listening — you can take it any time.
- 3 Learn how to spell the new words — spelling counts.
- 4 Practise writing an informal email to a friend of about 90 words in 15 minutes.

During the test

- 1 Read every instruction: how many words to write, and which paragraph to look in.
- 2 Reading questions use other words (synonyms). Find the same idea in the text, then copy the words exactly.
- 3 In grammar, look for time words (yesterday, since, next week) — they tell you the tense.
- 4 Don't leave a gap empty — a good guess can still get the point.
- 5 Writing: plan for 2–3 minutes, answer every point, then check spelling and tenses.

Good luck!
