What's in the test

| PART                                                            | WHAT YOU DO                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | POINTS | TIME* |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|-------|
| Listening                                                | Listen to a recording and answer 10 questions: true or false, then complete sentences with words you hear.                                                                                                                              | 10     | 10'   |
| Reading                                                  | Read a text (about 440 words) and answer 10 questions with words from the text: 1–4 short answers (no more than three words and/or a number), 5–7 complete sentences (no more than two words), 8–10 complete a summary (one word only). | 20     | 18'   |
| Vocabulary                                               | 1–5: find a word or short phrase in the text for each meaning. 6–10: word formation — change the word in CAPITALS to fit the sentence (e.g. HELP → helpful).                                                                            | 10     | 7'    |
| Grammar                                                  | Complete 20 sentences with the correct form of the word(s) in brackets. You may need more than one word (e.g. have been waiting).                                                                                                       | 20     | 10'   |
| Writing                                                  | Write an informal email to a friend — about 120–150 words. Answer every point in the task.                                                                                                                                              | 40     | 20'   |
| *Suggested time. Keep the last 5 minutes to check your answers. |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | 100    | 70'   |

How your answers are marked

- ✓ You type your answers on the Sevenine test platform.
- ✓ Spelling counts. A misspelt word can lose the point — in grammar the form must be exactly right.
- ✓ Capital letters don't matter. Short and full forms are both correct: didn't = did not.
- ✓ Write only the missing word(s), not the whole sentence. "No more than three words" means three at most.
- ✓ Your teacher marks the writing: 4 criteria × 10 points.

To pass, you need 70 points out of 100.

The writing task

Informal email to a friend

≈ 120–150 words · 40 points

Word counter on the platform:
110–160

10 POINTS EACH

Content — every point of the task is answered.

Vocabulary — a range of words from these units, spelt correctly.

Organisation — paragraphs, linking words, a clear start and end.

Grammar — correct tenses and forms, including the grammar above.

Before the test

- 1 Revise the grammar and vocabulary of Units 1–6 — in your Navigate B1 coursebook and workbook.
- 2 Take the practice test “Mid-Course Practice” on the Sevenine platform. Same parts without listening — you can take it any time.
- 3 Learn how to spell the new words — spelling counts.
- 4 Practise writing an informal email to a friend of about 120–150 words in 20 minutes.

During the test

- 1 Read every instruction: how many words to write, and which paragraph to look in.
- 2 Reading questions use other words (synonyms). Find the same idea in the text, then copy the words exactly.
- 3 In grammar, look for time words (yesterday, since, next week) — they tell you the tense.
- 4 Don't leave a gap empty — a good guess can still get the point.
- 5 Writing: plan for 2–3 minutes, answer every point, then check spelling and tenses.

Good luck!
